

Join the Tawani Science Team!

TAWANI 2008 INTERNATIONAL ANTARCTIC EXPEDITION

Official Team Patch

Students from Innsbruck, Austria & Galena, Illinois spearheaded the design for the expedition patches.

An additional objective for the 2008 Tawani International Antarctic Expedition is an internet-based educational program to foster and promote interest in science, research, education and exploration. An educator's guide and lesson plans have been developed for teachers and students in the US and around the world to participate in daily team reports, view photographs and video, and to track various science projects to be conducted during the course of the expedition.

Visitors to the website, sponsored by the Tawani Foundation, can receive an official 2008 Tawani Antarctic Expedition Mission patch as part of our educational program.

Those interested in receiving the Official Mission Patch by mail must visit the website and send a 100-word essay on one of the following essay topics for the 2008 Tawani Expedition.

Essay Topics

1. View the PowerPoint presentations Perfectly Penguin and write an essay about the different kinds of penguins living in Antarctica.
2. Read the Expedition Fact Sheet and summarize the goals and members of the Expedition Team.
3. Listen to three different Expedition Audio Updates and write what you learned about the Expedition.
4. Watch the video Expedition Logistics and write about the logistical issues encountered by the Expedition Team.
5. What have you learned from reviewing the Tawani Expedition goals and audio reports?
6. How has the information helped you in your course studies?
7. What areas of the mission interest you the most and why?

Essay Submission Guidelines

1. The first 400 entries will receive by mail the Official Tawani Expedition Team Patch.
2. Essay entries must be postmarked by December 15, 2008.
3. All entries become the property of the Tawani Foundation and may be used, published or otherwise disseminated without restrictions.
4. Submissions may be typed or handwritten, but must be received by mail. No faxes, e-mail or pdf files will be accepted. No phone calls please.
5. In order to receive patch, include name, address, city, state and school on a separate page or 3 x 5 card to:

2008 Tawani International Antarctic Expedition
Tawani Foundation
104 S. Michigan Ave.
Suite 600
Chicago, IL 60611

ATTN: 2008 Expedition Essay

To learn more on the science of the expedition, the education plan and team members, visit the Tawani 2000 International Antarctic Expedition website at: <http://expedition.tawanifoundation.org>.